Horizon Program

OVERVIEW

GWRRA leaders have an organizational view encompassing many horizons. They are concerned with people, perceptions, expectations, GWRRA as an organization, their own capabilities, and much more. Each of these considerations involves both opportunities and challenges. The Horizon Program is an intensive 1½ day learning experience designed to provide the participant with knowledge, understanding, confidence, and the skills needed to be successful at the chapter level or beyond. This program prepares leaders for the “people” side of GWRRA and helps to demonstrate the concept that attitude is everything.

PROGRAM GOALS

Graduates of the program will be prepared to execute the duties of their position and enhance their entire GWRRA experience with confidence, energy, and a new level of resolve based on a better understanding of their responsibilities and capabilities. Spouses/significant others are strongly encouraged to attend.
